The ADVANCE of Bucks County

“Sister City” support recognized

Linda Manzo, center, of Northampton, and Joan Heckler, second from left, of Newtown, members of the Bucks County Central American Network, accept a proclamation from the Bucks County commissioners acknowledging the county's continuing support of its "Sister City," Guarjila, El Salvador. Network members have provided physical and financial support to the village, named a Sister City by the commissioners in 1990. The proclamation notes the return of peace to El Salvador after many years of civil war. Presenting the proclamation are Commissioners Mark S. Schweiker, left; Andrew L. Warren, chairman, and Sandra A. Miller.
